

Bristol Local Plan Further Consultation - Privacy notice

Bristol City Council is the data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998 and other regulations including the UK General Data Protection Regulations (UK GDPR).

To provide this service, we will process your comment, name, email address and address.

We are collecting this data because it is in the public interest to process this. Your name and comment may be made public as it will form part of the evidence base used to inform the creation of planning policy documents.

The above purposes may require disclosure of any data received in accordance with the Freedom of information Act 2000. We will use this information to assist in plan making and to contact you regarding the planning consultation process.

We will hold this information for 5 years and we will contact you to see if you wish to be contacted as part of other planning consultations before this period expires.

For more information relating to the contact details of the data controller and your rights relating to processing, you can read our full Privacy Statement
